Conflict Minerals Policy

James Durrans & Sons Ltd Conflict Minerals Policy

It is the policy of the James Durrans Group to refrain from dealing with companies in the DRC, or any other country that may be mining product, in conditions of armed conflict and/or human rights abuses. JDS have no requirement to purchase from such countries and will take into account any country's ethical predicament, prior to dealing with such countries. JDS will endeavour to ensure that it's own suppliers also refrain from dealing with companies operating in countries / conditions of this nature.
